

IF A MILLION PEOPLE LOVE YOU

If a million people love you,
I'll be among them.

If a thousand people love you,
I'll be one of the thousand who cares.

If only a hundred people love you,
I'll be the one who cries.

If only two people love you,
I'll be the one on your right side.

But if no one on earth is left to love you,
You will know that I have died.

BUT, God is still alive.
